

PUDDLE OF MUDD ANNOUNCE FALL US TOUR

Band To Perform “Gimme Shelter” On The Tonight Show With Jay Leno Tomorrow Night

NEW YORK, NY –October 6, 2011 – Puddle Of Mudd have added a run of headlining dates in the US this fall to their already busy upcoming schedule. Beginning on November 14th in Hartford, CT fans attending the gigs can expect to hear a set filled with their hits along with a few songs from their new album Re:(disc)covered.

Re:(disc)covered finds Puddle Of Mudd digging back into their own past for the songs that turned them on to becoming musicians in the first place. Tracks include such classics as AC/DC’s “TNT,” Steve Miller’s “The Joker,” Elton John’s “Rocket Man,” the Stevie Nicks/Tom Petty duet “Stop Draggin’ My Heart Around” (which Puddle Of Mudd recorded with BC Jean), Neil Young’s “Old Man,” and the first single, the Rolling Stones’ classic: “Gimme Shelter.”

Puddle Of Mudd will perform “Gimme Shelter” on The Tonight Show With Jay Leno this Friday October 7th.

Over the past decade the band have sold over six million albums worldwide and collected nine Top 20 rock hits including seven, which went straight to #1 on the charts. Puddle Of Mudd’s impact at rock radio over the past decade is undeniable.
