REV THEORY RETURN TO THE AIRWAVES WITH NEW SINGLE "THE FIRE"

QUINTET TO TOUR WITH FIVE FINGER DEATH PUNCH THIS FALL

New York, NY --- Rev Theory return to the airwaves with a new single impacting rock radio August 30. The song "The Fire," follows the top fifteen hit and title track from their recent release Justice. The album had a strong first week at retail, with Billboard chart debuts of 11 at Alternative, 20 at Hard Rock and 75 on the Top 200 National chart. When asked about the song, singer Rich Luzzi shared, "No matter how bad it ever gets in any relationship just realize that nothing is forever. Do not wait for tomorrow to say what could be said today because tomorrow may never come!"

This Fall the quintet will tour with Five Finger Death Punch, on a run that takes them coast-to-coast alongside All That Remains and Hatebreed. Prior, the band will make select headline appearances which are beginning to be locked in. The current itinerary includes:

8/20	Brooklyn, MI	Michigan International Speedway	Headline
